Covid Update I hope you all had a good week last week. As you will be aware, we have spent many months taking care of each other in our community as the Covid pandemic has unfolded and changed over time. Thank you for the many ways in which our community has been patient, flexible, and resilient in helping to ensure that everyone can remain as safe as possible, and as happy as possible, when coming into school.

World Book Day We had a lovely day yesterday and did lots of World Book day related activities. Thank you to all the children and staff who dressed up!

Parent Consultation Evenings If you are yet to book a slot for next weeks parent evenings, please log on and do so as soon as possible! Thank you. We are looking forward to seeing you all!

PTFA Quiz Thank you to everyone who attended the school quiz last night. We had a tremendous turnout with over 70 people taking part! It was a close run thing in the end but congratulations to 'Killing Stocks' who won with 56 points!

School Lunches Our pre-school children are now having school lunches and this has been a real success. If there any other parents wishing for their children to have a cooked lunch during a school day then please contact the school office. Thank you.

And finally... The crisis in Ukraine is clearly a source of upset and concern. In school we have talked to the older children (Y2-6) about the situation and have explained that although what is happening is dreadful, lots of people around the world are doing their very best to bring this conflict to a swift conclusion.
