

Attendance Thank you to children and parents alike who have really made a huge effort to maintain high levels of attendance this half term. Our overall attendance stands at 96.18% which is in line with national Expectations. Thank you! You will also receive a letter from the Trust CEO, Mrs Jo Robinson, regarding the importance of attendance. please have a careful read and keep it safe as there is some useful information contained within it.

Our curriculum Our children have really enjoyed learning about 'Rulers and Society' this half term. They are really engaged in their learning and are developing the skills and knowledge associated with committing facts to their long term memories. I have enjoyed talking to the children about their learning and am looking forward to finding out what they already know about next half term's topic - 'The UK'.

Poppies on sale Poppies and other Remembrance Items are on sale again in school with a recommended retail price of a £1 donation. Please do support this worthwhile cause if you can.

And finally... Don't forget the clocks go back one hour this Saturday night! I hope you have a restful and relaxing half term break and look forward to seeing everyone safe and sound on Monday 6th November.

- 6 Nov - Return to school
- 14 - 16 Nov - Parents' Evening
