

I hope you all had a good half term break. This half term is another short one as we finish for Easter on Friday 22nd March.

Rowan Class Thank you to all the parents of children in Rowan Class for your continued understanding and support regarding staff absence. I completely understand any concerns you may have and despite the children having had different teachers teaching them over the last few weeks, they have had a consistent approach to the curriculum and have continued to fulfil the consistently high expectations that we have of them. Miss Lowde will hopefully make a full return from Monday.
