

Christmas Fair Thank you to the PTFA who hosted a wonderful Christmas Gathering last night. There was a lovely atmosphere in school and it was great to see so many parents. Thank you so much for all your help.

Arbor Bill Paying Please can you log onto Arbor at your earliest convenience and pay any outstanding payments? Thank you. I am aware that there have been some significant teething problems with Arbor so if you are having difficulty logging on, please contact Mrs Verity via email: summerbridge@ycatschools.co.uk

Theatre Consent Please can you also make sure that you have given consent and made a voluntary contribution for the forthcoming theatre trip? Thank you.

🎄 Deck the Halls! 🎄

The school council are running a Christmas Decoration Competition for all pupils in school.

Get creative and help bring some festive cheer to the classrooms.

Our theme is 'Santa and Friends', so get creative!

Entries should be brought to school no later than Monday 15th December and winners will be announced at our Christmas lunch.

Prizes will be presented for the following designs:

- Funniest
- Most eco-friendly
- Most imaginative

Let's make our school sparkle this Christmas!

Free entry

School Council Update...The school council have been busy devising their next idea...see the box for details!

And finally... A massive well done to Kate, Sarah, Kim and Helen for being nominated finalists in the Mumbler Pre-School Awards. Although we didn't win, to be in the top 6

This half term our whole school topic is: 'The UK' nominees out of 23 local pre-schools is a huge achievement! You're all winners as far as we're concerned!

Well done Zia who starred in the opening night for 'The Canterville Ghost', a performance by Summerbridge Players in which she plays Stripes, one of the mischievous twins. They've got two more shows to go, tonight and Saturday. Awesome work Zia!
